
Geotechnical Engineer

You are hereby invited to apply for the above vacancy

Responsibilities:

- Provide development direction for mining products
- Assist with the development of geotechnical operator training material
- Present operator courses to geotechnical clients
- Write and delivery of papers at geotechnical conferences
- Host and facilitate Reutech Mining user conferences
- Provide consultancy services to geotechnical clients
- Assist with development of underground products.

Required Education & Experience:

- M.Sc Degree in Engineering Geology or equivalent
- Minimum of 8 years' experience in a mining and consultancy environment with specific focus on engineering geology which should include:
 - Geological, structural and rock mass data collection
 - Geotechnical model and domain complication
 - Geotechnical input for mine planning
 - Geotechnical gap analysis
 - Pit slope design
 - Rock related hazard identification
 - Pit slope monitoring, both long term and strategic/ safety critical
 - Experience in the application of radar to monitor mine slopes
- Experience in the publication of technical papers.

Competencies & Behaviours:

- Pro-active
- Team Player
- Strong desire to learn
- Good communication and collaboration skills
- Customer focussed
- Ability to work under pressure
- Creative problem solving skills.

Start Date: ASAP

Please submit your CV to Brunique Cyster at bruniquec@reutech.co.za