
Software Support Technologist

You are hereby invited to apply for the above vacancy

Responsibilities:

- Testing new software and providing feedback to the software team.
- Developing and maintaining software for automated system testing.
- Developing and maintaining software for remote monitoring.
- Developing and maintaining scripts and tools for automated software builds.
- Providing level 2 support on issues that support technicians.
- On standby for urgent software issues that support technicians after hours.
- Training technicians regarding updates to the system software.
- Provide software support to production technicians building new radars.
- Updating the knowledge base for support queries.
- Peer code reviews.
- Design, develop and test software applications in accordance with company standards.

Required Education & Experience:

- BSc Computer Science/Engineering or Diploma in Engineering/Software.
- Experience in software testing and automation.
- Understanding of version control concepts.
- Familiarity with test-driven development and unit testing theory.
- Ability to develop software in C, C++, C#, Python or other selected languages.
- Minimum 3 years relevant working experience.
- Linux OS, and shell scripting.
- Windows OS
- GIT Software repository usage

Competencies & Behaviours:

- Excellent communications and collaboration skills.
- Strong desire to learn.
- Customer focussed.
- Ability to work under pressure.
- Creative problem solving skills.
- Pro-active.
- Team Player.

Start Date: ASAP

Please submit your CV to Brunique Cyster at bruniquiec@reutech.co.za